

INTRODUCTION OF OUR TEAM

DIGITAL FIRST

Noluthando Mnguni
 Founder and Head of Client
 Digital Success

Noluthando is a sharp analytical thinker with a unique ability to translate data into meaningful narratives — and those narratives into powerful, human-centered brand experiences. Her gift for turning numbers into story, and story into strategy, is the guiding light behind each client’s journey to digital success.

She is a 2024 Woman in Business honoree, recognized by the Africa Women in Innovation and Entrepreneurship Forum (AWIEF). Noluthando holds a degree in Film Screenwriting from AFDA, and has completed a Brand Management and Online Marketing course through the University of Cape Town’s GetSmarter program; a blend of creative and strategic training that fuels her holistic approach to brand building.

Zinwezenkosi
 Digital Brand and Marketing Assistant

Zinwezenkosi is a dynamic and forward-thinking creative with a passion for impactful storytelling and innovation. With a growing footprint in the world of media and communications, Zinwezenkosi brings a unique blend of strategic insight and artistic expression to every project. Whether collaborating on digital content, developing visual narratives, or supporting brand initiatives, Zinwezenkosi approaches each opportunity with intention, creativity, and a deep commitment to meaningful engagement.

Her passion is backed by a solid background in film and television, social media management, video content creation, and creative direction.

 2022
 Founded

 Office
 Rosebank

 Team
 5+

 4.9
 Google Rating

Anele Gina

Product Marketing and visual photographer

Anele is a Product Marketing Photographer who tells powerful stories through the lens—transforming everyday products into striking visuals that connect directly with audiences. At Nono Communications, he works on client campaigns, combining creative instinct with a deep understanding of brand identity to produce content that drives engagement and impact.

His background in Web Applications and Gaming from Varsity College (Sandton) enhances the technical understanding of storytelling, equipping him with a unique perspective on how narrative drives engagement and user experience.

Vusi Sibanda

Product Marketing and
visual photographer

Vusimuzi is a creative photographer known for thinking outside the box and going the extra mile to capture the perfect shot. Currently studying Civil Engineering at DUT, he uses his understanding of structure and symmetry to enhance his work seamlessly blending subjects with their environment. His portfolio spans portraits, weddings, corporate events, and graduations, driven by a passion for capturing the subject of meaningful moments into story.

ProLight Creations

Digital Media Graphic Designer

ProLight Creations collaborates closely with Nono Communications to produce high-impact digital visuals for clients across industries. Their work consistently drives engagement, strengthens brand consistency, and resonates with target audiences. With a strong command of visual communication and a sharp eye for design detail, they bring brand stories to life through compelling, on-brand content. Known for their creativity, reliability, and impressive design skills, they play a key role in delivering client campaigns that leave a lasting impression.

OWN YOUR DIGITAL WEALTH